Sixth-form students have designs on fashion

SENIOR pupils at a Wyre Forest school have excelled themselves by designing and making their own evening dress as part of their final work for the A level textile and product design qualification.

Two of the students based at Haybridge High School and Sixth Form, in Hagley, near Stourbridge, studied at Wolverley Church of England Secondary School, near Kidderminster, as part of the ContinU Trust 'scheme.

Textiles teacher Mrs Marina Brumpton said, "The students have worked extremely hard during the whole design process.

"I am so pleased with the quality and originality of the final garments."

Among the teenagers taking part in the project were Natalie Reese and Sasha Hatherley, who are Year 13 ContinU students at Haybridge High School and Wolverley CE School's Verity Sanger and Sophie Chilman – also Year 13 students.

Contin U is a scheme to encourage collaboration between schools in the area.

TRAGIC BOY'S LOCK PLUNGE

Canal fall victim Robbie Fidoe, 12

TRIBUTES were paid this week to a 12-year-old boy who died after falling 20ft into a canal lock at Stourport.

Robert Fidoe, who was described as a "lively and loveable" boy, was riding his bike over a narrow bridge at the town's canal basin when he lost his balance.

He struggled in the water before losing consciousness.

Since the accident on Friday afternoon, the bridge he fell from has been cordoned off, and the tragedy prompted a call for safety measures at the site.

A Facebook page has been set up in tribute to Robert, a Year 8 pupil at Stourport High School who was out cycling with a friend at half-term.

Bunches of flowers have been placed at the scene, with cards carrying emotional messages to Robert.

His family, who are members of the travelling community, have been too upset to talk publicly. They live on a caravan site in Hartlebury, near Stourport.

One of the tributes on the Facebook page says: "Thoughts are with everyone who knew Rob Fidoe, so tragic", while another friend has written: "Sleep tight Rob, sweet dreams."

Headteacher Liz Quinn said: "We are shocked and saddened at the tragic and untimely death of Robbie Fidoe.

"Robbie was a well known popular lively and loveable Year 8 student."

Lickhill ward's Councillor Jim Parish said: "This was an absolute tragedy, but I believe the authorities including British Waterways should take some steps to improve the safety around the locks in particular.

"The bridges are very narrow, which I think is standard across the country, but the problem is that children have very little fear and do not realise the dangers.

"I have been concerned for some time that something like this could happen."

Councillor | Parish added: "The riverside and canal basins are very dangerous places and I do not believe it is possible to make them completely safe – but something needs to be done. There have been two bad accidents in a matter of weeks."

Late last month a man suffered serious head injuries when he tumbled almost 10ft into a canal dry dock just yards away in Bridge Street.

Encourage

West Mercia Police appealed for anyone who saw last Friday's accident to call 0300 3333 000 quoting incident number 261-s-030611.

● Following the tragedy, the treasure trail for the Pirates Weekend at Stourport Canal Basins this Saturday and Sunday has been rerouted away from the scene.

Pauline Annis, chair of Stourport Forward, said: "We were deeply saddened to hear about the tragic loss last Friday and have sought advice from several people, including British Waterways and the local police, as to whether or not we should continue with the event.

"We wish to make it clear that the threat of a 'pirate boat lurking' refers to the Upper Canal Basin only. Also, following this advice, we have redirected the treasure trail route so that it avoids the Lower Basin, where the tragedy happened, and we will encourage families to enter the site via Engine Lane."

Ms Annis added: "We send our sincere condolences to the boy's family."

Keeper's frantic bid to save lad

A LOCK-KEEPER has told of his desperate battle to help save 12-year-old Robert Fidoe after he fell into a canal at Stourport.

The youngster died in Birmingham Children's Hospital last Friday just over an hour after he was dragged from a lock in Stourport Canal Basin. Rescue teams spent 30 minutes searching for him until lockkeeper Graham Mitchell, aged 57, pulled the boy's body from the water using a rope and hook.

Survive

Mr Mitchell said: "I was working nearby and ran to the scene. They were really struggling to find him so I threw the hook in and managed to get him by his ankle. He had been in the water for so long, I didn't think there was any chance he would survive. It was awful."

Mr Mitchell added: "It's easy to see how the boy could have lost his balance riding a bike over there."

Travellers move out as court case looms

By Sarah Hazelwood
s.hazelwood@expressandstar.co.uk

A COURT hearing to evict travellers from a Kidderminster car park was adjourned after they moved from the site just hours before the case.

Wyre Forest Council chiefs were due in court in a bid to force three caravans out of Heronswood Road car park, Spennells.

Aggborough and Spennells ward's Councillor John Aston said residents had been concerned about travellers who left rubbish on the site.

Last Friday the council cleared the car park which was back to normal use over the weekend. Additional fencing is also set to be erected.

Greenhill ward's Councillor Graham Ballinger, who lives in Spennells, said: "It's good to see the car park back to normal."

"I believe there will be ongoing discussions about where travellers can go even though there are official places across the county for them to stay.

"Hopefully the extra fencing and metal barrier will stop them from accesssing this site."

Auctioneer to take bids

ARELEY Kings Village Hall hosts a grand auction for a Stourport church this weekend.

St Bartholomew's Church, Dunley Road, has organised the auction to take place on Saturday, June 11, with a wide selection of items up for auction.

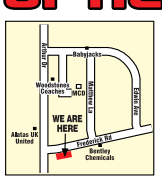

Viewing

They include toys such as a quad bike, art work and paintings, glassware and many other goodies.

Viewing begins at 3pm, refreshments are at 5.30pm and and the auctioneer takes bids from 6.30pm.

Admission is free.

Jobcentre race assault arrest

A MAN has been arrested on suspicion of racially aggravated assault after a member of staff was headbutted at Kidderminster Job Centre.

West Mercia Police were called to the office at Lower Mill Street at around 1pm on Monday.

The staff member suffered a bloody nose and a man was arrested and released on police bail until July 26.

Giants strangling high street shops

FOR years, Kidderminster townsfolk have bemoaned the gradual death of the high street, with traditional shops closing.

But around the ring road five supermarket giants attract shoppers in their droves, and now Asda wants to move in, despite concerns that the huge stores are strangling the town centre and taking trade away.

Residents are also asking what makes Kidderminster so attractive to the firms that they are willing to build sites so close to one another.Over the last 20 years Tesco, Sainsbury's, Morrisons, Netto and Aldi have all popped up around the ring road. And now Asda has unveiled ambitious plans to build a 40,000 sq ft superstore, community centre and link road in Churchfields, next to the ring road.

The new road would join up with the ring road alongside St Mary's Church.

Independent traders in neighbouring Horsefair are furious, saying the plans would leave them "stranded". They have started a campaign to get the plans either abandoned or drastically changed.

Aldi, in Green Street, is near Morrisons, another large Kidderminster supermarket

Bill Sidhu, who has run the post office in the Horsefair for 20 years, said: "At least half of our business relies on passing trade and this will completely wipe that out.

"People stopping off as they pass through are vital to shops here. If a supermarket is built so close, the area will decline and the Horsefair will become a collection of boarded-up shops."

Struggling

Mr Sidhu said Asda should have moved into a high-profile vacant unit, such as the former Woolworths store or the old magistrates court in Worcester Street. But Asda bosses say the old 1902 building in Churchfields was the "best location" they could find.

Property communications manager Avnish Raichura said: "Kidderminster is an area that Asda has not yet tapped into and we feel there is a good customer base."

Resident Margaret Hurd, aged 58, of Comberton Road, said she liked having a wide choice of supermarkets.

But John McMillan, aged 45, of the Rifle Range estate, Kidderminster, said: "What use are these huge supermarkets on the outskirts if the town centre itself is struggling?"

Benefits claimant had £40k in savings

A WOMAN in Kidderminster claimed more than £9,000 in benefits after failing to declare a second bank account.

Pamela Carwood was given a six-week jail sentence, suspended for 12 months, by Kidderminster magistrates.

The 58-year-old, of Park Street, who admitted three charges of dishonestly claiming benefit, must also carry out 200 hours' unpaid work after failing to tell Wyre Forest Council about a bank account in which she had more than £40,000.

Mrs Mary Morgan, for the district council, said Carwood claimed benefit and initially only declared one bank account.

Interest

Information was received from the Housing Benefit Matching Service that she received interest for an account that appeared not to have been declared.

Between March 16, 2007, and February 21, 2010, she was paid £399 in council tax benefit and £8,657 housing benefit to which she was not entitled. She agreed she had not made a full declaration.

Carwood was ordered to pay £522.50 towards costs of the investigation and prosecution and will have to return the overpaid benefit in full.

Lisa Kellett's phone captured a glorious display of poppies

Poppies flaming in June

THE recent good weather provided this picture perfect scene of resplendent red poppies in a beauty spot near Bewdley

Taken opposite Blackstone Picnic Place, off the A456 Bewdley bypass, the stunning image of a poppy field in full bloom was photographed last Friday.

Temperatures crept up to around 25C (77F) in a brief spell of summery conditions and Lisa Kellett, who works in The Chronicle's media sales department at Kidderminster, took full advantage with this impromptu picture.

"I was driving past and you couldn't miss all that red – it was outstanding," Lisa said.

Camera

Far from using a professional camera to capture the moment, Lisa simply used the camera on her mobile phone.

"I was quite stunned when I saw the results," Lisa added.

"I didn't think they'd ever come out that well."

Town hope for leisure centre

A NEW leisure centre is on the cards for Kidderminster, but a facelift for outdated Forest Glades Centre has been ruled out following a review.

It is likely community groups will take over the management of both Stourport Sports Centre and Bewdley Leisure Centre under an agreed asset transfer.

The review was carried out by a panel set up by Wyre Forest Council to find ways of reducing the £1.2 million annual bill for the upkeep of leisure centres.

It has now put forward a list of recommendations to be discussed by the cabinet during June.

The panel opted to support plans for a new leisure centre to be built in Kidderminster – but did not suggest a preferred site.

Members also agreed that transfer of Stourport Sports Centre and Bewdley Leisure Centre to the community was the best option.

Forest Glades Leisure Centre, in Kidderminster, is nearing the end of its operational life and the panel advised it was not worth considering refurbishment.

Existing management contracts, currently held by the DC Leisure group, would be extended to make sure they remain open until new schemes are in place.

Views

A six-week public consultation will be held if the cabinet decides to follow the recommendations.

Residents would be able to submit their views on-line or by sending in forms available at the three leisure centres. Staff would also be fully consulted.

A final decision would be made by the cabinet in September which would then be ratified by the full council in October.

The review was launched in February because new options will be needed when the district council's management contract with DC Leisure, which also runs Wolverhampton Swimming & Leisure Centre, in Wednesfield, expires in 2013.

The Forest Glades building is also reaching the end of its working life, councillors have been told.

Councillor Helen Dyke, from the review panel and chairman of the scrutiny committee, said: "We have looked at every available option before reaching these recommendations."

Rebecca Woodcock with paintings for this weekend's exhibition

Rebecca's art choices

A KIDDERMINSTER woman has been busy choosing work for the Bewdley Open Studios' annual exhibition which opens this weekend.

Rebecca Woodcock has returned from the Himalayas, where she has been working with orphaned and trafficked children.

Venues

She is now studying for a fine arts degree at Wolverhampton University.

The exhibition at the Wyre Forest Gallery in the Bewdley is to be opened on Saturday by Michele White, past president of the Royal Birmingham Society of Artists, and will run until June 26.

The Bewdley Open Studios has now become the premier visual arts event in the Wyre Forest district, and 55 five artists will show case their work over the weekend of June 25-26, mainly in the Bewdley museum.

Other venues include the Bewdley School and Sixth form Centre. In conjunction with the open studios there are several workshops, including this Saturday"s creative mixed media workshop for all skill levels with David Spurrier RBSA.

Carnival already a hit with diners

A SPONSORSHIP night at a Kidderminster takeaway in aid of the town's carnival won the seal of approval from the chairman of Wyre Forest Council.

Family-run Indian Style donated an evening's takings of £210 to the carnival, which is raising money for four charities and voluntary groups this year.

Councillor Stephen Clee called into the Comberton Place business during the evening to wish owner Mumshad Ahmed and his staff well.

The carnival, on Saturday, June 18, is raising money for the Odell Trust for people with learning difficulties, Noah's Ark, which supports bereaved children, Kidderminster ExService Association and the Severn Area Rescue Association.

Rescue

Charities, voluntary groups and commercial organisations can book stalls at Brinton Park by ringing Colin Hill on 01562 751634.

Organisers hope for a good turnout to the foot procession around the park which replaces the floats parade this year.

There are prizes of £50 for the best dressed group, and £25 each for best child and adult entry. Judging takes place in Brinton Park at noon and the procession begins at 12.30pm.

Shock as grave is defaced

A WIDOW was devastated after her husband's grave at Wolverley was daubed with blue paint.

The headstone at St John the Baptist church was vandalised along with a wall of the church, a window and a sign.

Heartless

The name of Gordon Hardwicke had been covered with paint by the yob – believed to be a boy.

Grandmother Shirley Hardwicke, aged 70, lost her husband in 2003.

"I'm very upset that someone could do such a heartless thing," she said.

"It's truly despicable.".

Jamie Dancyger has set his sights on Athens

Farm fun day for Jamie

A FARM near Bewdley is throwing open its gates on June 12 for Open Farm Sunday to help a volunteer fulfil his dream of competing at the Special Olympics.

As well as guided walks to see the animals, Uncllys Farm, in Tanners Hill, is holding its own Olympic games that includes wheel barrow races, sack races and other contests.

Orchards

The event is free, with small donations for entering the races and all funds going to aid Jamie Dancyger.

"We decided to do a lot more than open the farm up for people to visit us," said farmer John Isles

"All the funds we raise are going to support Jamie, who is in the GB team going to Special Olympic World Summer Games in Athens.

"Jamie, who has a learning disability, is one of the volunteers with the Wyre Community Land Trust and has helped plant new orchards, erect fences and work with cattle."

Jamie, aged 25, aims to be compete in the 1,500m, 3,000m and 4 x 400m relay races.

To find out more, contact Mark Cleaver at Wyre Community Land Trust on 01299 488083.

Hospitals chief Rostill to retire

THE chairman of the trust which runs Kidderminster Hospital is stepping down after eight years at the helm.

John Rostill OBE, aged 64, leaves Worcestershire Acute Hospitals Trust on July 31, ending a 47-year career in the NHS.

He began as a administrative trainee in Walsall.

His retirement comes as bosses in Worcester revealed that plans to apply for Foundation Trust status, will be delayed so they can "demonstrate their commitment to patient care".

Youngsters cook up Masterchef success

Winner of the Lower School Masterchef Cup Katie Evans, 7, with judge Malcolm Smith, lead education adviser for Garden Organic

MASTERCHEFS of the future served up a treat when a school held a cookery competition.

Franche Community Primary School hosted its fourth Franche Food and Gardening Show, with the highlight being a Masterchef contest.

Pupils were asked to cook at home and bring in photos and information about their dishes, with the best invited to cook their meals before one pupil from each year took part in the grand final.

Katie Evans, aged seven, created a healthy sandwich in the shape of a cat and won the Lower School Masterchef Cup, apron and breakfast set.

James Bendall, 10, created a vegetable burger and seasonal vegetables, for which he won an apron, a hand mixer and the Upper School Masterchef Cup.

Unusual

Malcolm Smith, lead education adviser for Garden Organic, judged the contest and finalists were given a certificate, a cook book and either cookie cutters or a hand-painted plate.

Other activities during the Food and Gardening Show including the school's gardening club encouraging visitors to grow vegetables at home.

Chestnut Children's Centre offered dips and foods from around the world and teachers offered a wide variety of unusual fruit.

Val Weddell Hall, headteacher, said: "We were delighted that so many pupils, parents and members of the community joined to celebrate healthy eating."

Duck racing smashes cash record

A RECORD amount was netted for charities at Kidderminster Carnival duck race.

More than £800 was collected through the sale of ducks for the race along a stretch of the River Stour.

First place went to duck number 118 bought by eight-year-old Abbie Edwards, from Hampshire, who was visiting grandparents Marie and Terry Edwards, of Carlisle Avenue, Kidderminster.

Rescue

"We sold all the ducks, which I think was a first," said chairman Steve Walker.

This year's charities are the Odell Trust, Noah's Ark, the Kidderminster Exservice Association and the Severn Area Rescue Association.

Emily father to confront NZ premier

THE father of a Wyre Forest graduate who drowned while riverboarding has criticised a New Zealand adventure trip operator who said he regretted pleading guilty to charges over her death.

Chris Jordan plans to head to New Zealand to talk to the Prime Minister, John Key, and urge stricter regulations.

Chris Jordan

Victim Emily Jordan

Daughter Emily Jordan, aged 21, of Trimpley, was trapped under rocks while taking part in the extreme sport in South Island in 2008.

The jury at her inquest in Smethwick last month said her death could have been avoided if Mad Dog Riverboarding had taken better safety measures.

Insult

Firm owner Brad Mcleod has now been quoted in New Zealand as saying: "They offered a plea bargain and I accepted, in the hope all parties involved would be able to move on in a positive way. It is the single biggest regret I have."

Mr Jordan, who attended the trial at Queenstown district court, South Island, said he had opposed the plea bargain.

"I was pushing for a manslaughter charge to be brought against Brad McLeod and two other guides involved on the day," he said.

"This verdict was not worthy of New Zealand – an insult to Emily and our family."

Mr Jordan said he hoped to "help get the likes of Brad McLeod to realise these sports are not safe".

Mad Dog was fined £27,600 and ordered to pay £33,500 compensation after admitting failing to ensure the safety of clients.

Praise for staff who defied knifeman

STAFF at a Kidderminster supermarket were praised by a judge for disarming a knifeman.

Judge Christopher Plunkett said Tesco store manager Martin Morris and security officer Carl Jones deserved public thanks.

On Christmas Eve at 1am a fracas erupted between rival groups, said Charles Hardy, prosecuting at Worcester Crown Court.

Richard Hickman, aged 21, of Stourbridge Road, intervened with a knife.

"He was holding it at shoulder level and making stabbing gestures.

Grabbed

"Mr Morris stood in front of him and Mr Jones came from behind and grabbed the knife," Mr Hardy added.

Hickman admitted having an offensive weapon and using threatening words and behaviour.He was given a nine-month suspended jail sentence, with 150 hours' unpaid work.

Fergus Maxwell, defending, said Hickman had not gone equipped with a knife, but fetched one from the store's catering department.

Bard enthusiasts go wild over the Shrew

HUNDREDS of Shakespeare enthusiasts are expected next week for a performance in the grounds of a stately home near Kidderminster.

Hagley Hall hosts The Taming of the Shrew on Saturday, June 18 – the fourth year Viscount Cobham has opened his estate for an open air play.

Shakespeare in the Park begins at 6pm, and the grounds open at 4pm for visitors to take picnics. Refreshments are also on sale.

Dial-a-Ride buses survive cutbacks

THE co-ordinator of a Wyre Forest bus service has stressed that it will be unaffected by bus cuts announced this week by Worcestershire County Council.

Wyre Forest Dial-a-Ride, which provides a private service for £15 a year, is continuing its Monday to Friday runs as usual, said Rob Hartell.

By Tim Spiers
t.spiers@expressand star.co.uk

Mr Hartell said he had received many calls asking whether he would be cutting back.

"We're continuing as normal with our service to the community," Mr Hartell said.

He appealed for potential members or volunteer drivers to get in touch on 01562 755084.

Six bus routes serving the Wyre Forest area have been axed and 28 reduced to cut Worcestershire County Council spending by £2.5 million.

The plans were scaled back after an outcry from residents concerned about essential journeys.

Husband

Some services will end at 8pm and others will not run on Sundays.The county had originally planned to scrap 15 services in Wyre Forest

The 334 Sunday service between Worcestershire Royal Hospital and Stourport is to end.

Eileen O'Connor, aged 74, of Stourport, whose husband Bill has to spend long periods in hospital, said: "How am I going to Worcester on a Sunday? I'll have to get a taxi and it will make my life very difficult."

Councillor John Smith, cabinet member for highways and transport, said: "These have not been easy decisions."

National honour at Legion

THE women's section of Bewdley's Royal British Legion has received a national award – the first in Worcestershire.

The Buckingham Cup, which acknowledges progress and efficiency, was presented by Lady Bromley Davenport to past chairman Monica Powell.

Anne Mace, press officer, said: "We promise to do everything possible to help where there is a need and to ensure wartime generations and their dependants may enjoy the years that lie ahead in comfort, dignity and contentment."

The group welcomes new members to Guildhall on the first Wednesday of every month.

Ginny's going on

EDINBURGH Fringe Festival comedian Ginny Davis brings one-woman show Ten Days That Shook The Kitchen to Abberley Village Hall tomorrow. To book, email abberley friendsassoc@gmail.com or call 012 998 32622.

Stourport's Edward and Olivia Griffiths dance

Rave on – in the rain

HUNDREDS of people turned out to get rocking on the riverside at Stourport.

The Rock 'n' Roll Music event attracted more than 600 revellers who danced along despite Sunday afternoon rain.

Three acts took to the stage harked back to the golden age of pop music.

John Tame – known as DJ Rusty – played hits by Buddy Holly, Eddie Cochrane, Elvis Presley and Gene Vincent to get the crowd going.

Mr Tame, of Oxley Wolverhampton, has been in the music business since 1971.

Day-out family's racism ordeal

A FAMILY enjoying a day out in Bewdley were subjected to racial harassment.

A couple from Smethwick, were walking across the bridge away from the town centre, with their young son in a pushchair, when a red Ford Fiesta-type car sped past Bewdley bridge at about 6.50pm on Sunday, June 5

Wipes

The windows were open and a male voice shouted racial abuse at them. A substance believed to be sauce was thrown at them and landed on the woman.

She placed her handbag on the bridge to get some wipes out of it to clean up her top, and the bag fell into the river.

Pc Helen Stark said: "It is very sad that a family's visit to Bewdley ended this way. Not only were they subjected to racial harassment, but the woman's bag has not been recovered."

Steam up for photos day

THOUSANDS of photographs celebrating the golden age of steam go on display in Kidderminster next month

Railway enthusiasts from across the country are expected to head for the Railway Museum in Comberton Hill on July 9 from 10am to 4.30pm.

The attraction will also be opening up its own archives for the event.

Vale's value soars in 2010

Mike Wallis, chairman

STOURPORT contractor Thomas Vale has unveiled record turnover for the past year, describing the figure as a "milestone" in the development of the business.

In the most successful year of trading in its 142 years, the firm said turnover in the 12 months to March 31, 2011, exceeded £250 million, with pre-tax profits at a new high of more than £4 million.

The management-owned construction group, which won a £6.9m contract two months ago to build a new headquarters for Wyre Forest Council, has no borrowings and more than £21 million in the bank.

Ensure

The forward workload adds up to £550 million.

Chairman Mike Wallis said: "We continue to focus on cash management, pushing for efficiencies in our business and the supply chains to ensure our competitive edge is maintained and that clients continue to get added value for money and cashable and non-cashable benefits are brought to the communities in which we work."

Summer blitz on drink and drug drivers

THE Safer Roads Partnership and West Mercia Police have issued an alert to motorists in Wyre Forest district about the dangers of driving under the influence of drink or drugs this summer.

Offences typically increase at this time of year, and to combat this, enforcement will be a key priority for West Mercia Police. Roadside checks will be carried out at all times of the day and night and on all types of road, and drivers will be automatically tested if a collision occurs.

Over the past three years, 63 people have been killed or seriously injured in Worcestershire as a result of collisions involving drink or drugs.

Of particular concern are those motorists aged between 17 and 30, who are over-represented in collision statistics in the county.

Collisions

Figures show that 43 per cent of drivers involved in fatal collisions involving drink or drugs were aged 17-30 and 77 per cent of drivers in road accidents involving drink or drugs were male.

Acting Supt Lee Davenport said: "Cracking down on those who take drugs or drink and then drive is a year round commitment for West Mercia.

"The summer period can present opportunities where people are tempted to drive after taking drugs or drinking, and extra attention will be paid throughout the season in a bid to tackle those who commit the unacceptable act of drink or drug driving."

All the latest buzz

Joint manager Wendy Anderson with three-year-olds Lewis Allen and Abigail Turvey and Bee-Bot

THERE was a buzz in the air at a Kidderminster nursery when youngsters were presented with a new robot toy in the shape of a bee.

It will be used to help children at Wolverley Sebright Cygnets Nursery learn about directions and counting.

The computerised Bee-Bot has buttons and can move forwards and backwards as well as side to side along the floor or on a mat.

It was given to the nursery in Franche Road by Wolverley Tenants Committee.

Nursery manager Carole Everett-Li said "The Bee-Bot is an educational toy and will help the children understand movement and can also help them to count."

Summer music outdoors

SINGERS and musicians of all ages will be performing at a picnic at a beauty spot near Stourport next week.

Families can take hampers and chairs to the event on Thursday, June 16, at Bishops Wood Centre, Crossway Green.

Choirs

More than 360 singers and musicians, including schoolchildren, community choirs and the Severn Valley Samba Band, will be taking to the stage from 6.30pm.

Entry is £4 for adults and £2 for children. Call 01299 250513 or email jrhymer@worcestershire.gov.uk to reserve a place.

Twins peaked in Himalayas

WYRE Forest twins Declan and Rhys Williams have completed an epic trip of a lifetime by cycling to the foot of the world's highest mountain.

The 15-year-olds, who attend Kidderminster's King Charles I School, spent a month riding more than 700 miles through Tibet and Nepal to Everest base camp, braving severe weather.

Accompanied by their father, Stuart Williams, the brothers, both Air Cadets at Kidderminster 156 Squadron, smashed their fundraising target in aid of Help for Heroes and have raised more than £2,100 so far.

Visit http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/team/Williams to sponsor the trio.

Supported

In December, the brothers attend a celebrity lunch at Molineux to receive a Local Hero award supported by Wolves, the Chronicle's sister paper, the Express & Star, and Birmingham Midshires .

Declan said: "The trip went really well."

Health and safety seminar

A FREE seminar on employment law and health and safety changes will be held in Kidderminster next Tuesday, June 14. It begins at 9.30am at Gainsborough House Hotel, Bewdley Hill, organised by employment law firm Peninsula. To reserve a place, call 0161 834 2771.

Wigley's are spot on for that weekend DIY project!

Spring has finally sprung and it's time to tackle those jobs around the house and garden we put to one side at the end of last year. Fear not! help is at hand in the form of local DIY superstore Wigleys. A family business first started 40 years ago by Ken Wigley it is still in family with Ken's daughter Jane, and grandson James now running it.

The team pride themselves on offering a wide range of products alongside excellent customer service. The store has all the usual DIY related stock including paint, tools, fixings, plumbing materials and timber as well as a huge range of gardening products. The housewares section is growing and they even offer a pet section.

"We have undergone a period of change and improvement over recent months and are very happy with how the shop has evolved" says James. "There's lots of positive feedback from our customers too which is always a good sign! The new ranges we introduced are doing really well and the layout is much more customer friendly"

Jane adds "We're still very proud of our excellent customer service the knowledgeable staff take the time to offer advice that will make the job at home seem less daunting! Put us to the test and find out why we are better than many of our big named competitors!"

A Celebration for Gypsy Roma Traveller Month at Hartlebury
Sunday12 June 2011, 11am-5.00pm

"Travellers Tales" is a celebration of Gypsy, Roma and Traveller Heritage and culture taking place at Worcestershire County Museum, Hartlebury Castle, this Sunday.

The event, which has been put together with The Worcestershire Gypsy Roma and Traveller Partnership (which includes representatives from West Mercia Police, Rooftop Housing, The Community Housing Group, Worcestershire Diocese and Worcestershire County Counci)l is an exciting look at the way the Traveller communities have lived and the way they live today. It is part of a nationwide initiative 'Gypsy, Roma, Traveller Month' happening throughout June.

Things to see and do on the day include:
See our fabulous collection of Gypsy Caravans and meet Museum Volunteer Ced Lewis and his beautifully crafted three-quarter scale model caravan, "Bita Rawni".
Meet journalist Jake Bowers and enjoy his illustrated talks about Traveller Life and culture
Watch performances by the young people of Malvern's Got Talent
See a great display of Vintage Caravans courtesy of the Period & Classic Caravan Club
See the Gypsy Textile Art Project Exhibition in the Transport Gallery
Enjoy performances by Folk Band Fairfield Folk
Watch Falconry Displays from Arden Falconry
Join Storyteller Richard O'Neill for true Travellers Tales in the Orchard
Climb aboard the Museum on the Move bus and find out why "Numbers Count"
Join in craft activities, browse the stalls and watch demonstrations of traditional crafts
Plus explore over 1,000 years of history in the County Museum, visit the Cafe and Shop and explore Old Moat Coppice nature reserve.

For more details contact the museum on: 01299 250416
Normal admission prices apply: £12 – Family ticket, £4.50 adult, £2.25 child/concession

Holistic Feel Good Treatments for Local Cancer Patients

Kevin Barker owner of Simply Charming is a recovering cancer patient on a mission to bring a new type of treatment to sufferers in the Wyre Forest area. Diagnosed himself in 2009 with Bowel cancer he decided once his own treatment was complete he didn't want to return to his senior management role but, wanted to support others in a similar situation. "The treatment I received on the NHS was fantastic, and I probably wouldn't be here without it but, it was all very clinical and about the disease" he explains "none of the procedures or pills and therapy tackled my emotional wellbeing and I think it's something I really would have benefited from"

Kevin turned to Reiki and found it very helpful, it is a channeling of natural energies throughout the body that promotes a feeling of health. Although a holistic approach isn't recommended by the NHS as a way to treat cancer alone, it can be complimentary and help a patient feel strong and well enough to cope with what is often unpleasant procedures. Kevin started on his own promoting the idea at specialist events, shows and then progressed to a market stall, then opened the shop as a base where he can offer the services from which include Reiki, Reflexology, Massage and much more. The professionals working along side him are all offering their time at subsidised rates. The retail side of the business offers incense and burners, development books and candles along with a beautiful range of silver jewellery that make ideal gifts. The hope is that sales from the shop will help to subsidise the cost of treatments for patients so their individual circumstances don't mean they miss out. He also hopes the shop can be a base for sufferers to meet people in a similar situation and find support.

For any further information, or if you can help Kevin and his mission please call 01562 752522 and visit www.simplycharming925.co.uk

All Neil before the king of Diamond

The legend Neil Diamond is coming to the LG Arena

Neil Diamond LIVE is a chance for fans to take a trip down memory lane as he performs the songs that have made him one of the world's best-known live performers – Cracklin' Rosie, Song Sung Blue, You Don't Bring Me Flowers, Sweet Caroline, Love on the Rocks, and many more.

He is due at Birmingham's LG Arena on Tuesday, June 28, and Thursday, June 30.

Across a musical career stretching nearly 50 years, Diamond has sold more than 128 million albums worldwide. He has charted 37 Top 10 singles and 16 Top 10 albums.

Diamond is a member of the Songwriters Hall of Fame and is a recipient of the Sammy Cahn Lifetime Achievement Award, one of the highest honours bestowed upon songwriters. Diamond's many other achievements include a Golden Globe Award and 12 Grammy nominations.

Last October Neil's latest recording, Dreams was released through Sony Music – a 14-song collection comprising the singer/songwriter's favourite songs of other composers from the rock era.

The album includes music that deeply influenced him as a young man growing up in Brooklyn to other classics from the 60s and 70s including Hallelujah and Midnight Train to Georgia.

Tom Rees, as Garry Essendine, finds himself cornered by Marika Farr, left, Louise Fulwell and Sue Downing

Laughter like it's 1939

ONE of Noel Coward"s best-loved plays is brought to life next week at Kidderminster's Rose Theatre.

Resident players The Nonentities stage Present Laughter from Monday to Saturday, June 13-18.

The play was written in 1939 and first staged in wartime Blackpool in 1942, with the playwright taking the lead role as a successful actor, Garry Essendine, as he prepares to tour Africa.

Seduce

Tom Rees takes the part of the self-obsessed Essendine, following in the distinguished footsteps of Sir Ian McKellen, Albert Finney, Peter O'Toole and Simon Callow among others down the years.

Essendine has to deal with women who want to seduce him, while placating his long-suffering secretary and estranged wife and coping with a crazed young playwright. All the time he has to overcome his fear of middle age, having just turned 40.

Tom Rees with Judy Parr

Ticket information is available on www.rose theatre.co.uk or from the box office on 01562 743745.

Rachel back nearer home

Oldbury-born singer Rachel Button has come a long way since playing violin in Sandwell Youth Orchestra and is now preparing for her first major Midlands gig, at Birmingham's Glee Club tomorrow.

The concert coincides with the release of her debut EP, With Love, and is something of a homecoming for the 26-year-old.

She moved to London seven years and is now living the life of a musician.

In between gigs in and around the capital, Rachel is a vocal tutor at The Academy of Music and Sound in Birmingham, as well as finding time to write and produce songs. "It's an unstable lifestyle," she admits, "but I like it like that. It keeps me on my toes."

Rachel Button is at the Glee Club, Birmingham

A former pupil at Perryfields High School, Rachel has always loved to sing and after performing at churches and youth groups decided music was the career for her.

After convincing her supportive parents that it was the right thing to do,she went to London to earn a degree in Popular Music Performance, picking up a First before completing a Masters in the same subject. Now Rachel is hoping her new EP will be the first of many more releases.

Her Glee Club gig is the first she's done near her home town. Rachel is at the Club on June 10. Tickets are £6 in advance and doors open at 8pm.

Let's hear it for the boy Ren in Footloose fiesta

FOOTLOOSE explodes on to the stage at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre with classic 80s anthems including Holding Out For A Hero, Let's Hear It For The Boy, Almost Paradise and of course the title track, Footloose.

Starring Steven Pinder as Reverend Shaw Moore and Max Milner as Ren it tells the story of life in a small town which is peaceful – until city boy, Ren, arrives, breaking every taboo,

Ren brings dance back to the heart of a town held back by the memory of a tragedy. Based on the hit 80s movie which launched the careers of Kevin Bacon, Sarah Jessica Parker and John Lithgow, Footloose has become a stage phenomenon with its electrifying dance routines and runs from Monday to Saturday, June 20-25.

Before that, on Saturday and Sunday, 18-19, is children's favourite Thomas the Tank Engine and Friends. Everyone's favourite little blue engine, Thomas steams onto the stage in a new musical adventure – Thomas and Friends Live: A Circus Comes to Town.

Favourite

When Thomas makes a big mistake, all the engines on Sodor must work together to prepare for an exciting event under the Big Top and Thomas must prove to Sir Topham Hatt that he's a really useful engine once again. The show promises a colourful cast of circus performers and a host of new songs .

It's songs of a different kind before that next Thursday, June 16, with The Bon Jovi Experience.

Since their formation in 1983, Bon Jovi have sold more than 120 million albums worldwide, and performed live in concert to more than 34 million fans. The Bon Jovi Experience is a tribute to one of the greatest rock bands of all time – they are also the only Bon Jovi tribute band in the world to have played live with lead singer Jon Bon Jovi himself.

Over to the Hippodrome in Birmingham and it's magic, mayhem and the original living doll. Birmingham Royal Ballet present Coppelia, where eccentric toymaker Dr Coppélius is planning to bring his mechanical doll, Coppélia, to life – with the right spell.

When Dr Coppélius leaves Coppélia on his workshop balcony she's soon causing quite a stir in the village.

Welsh National Opera present a new production of Mozart's Cosi Fan Tutte tonight (Thursday) and on Saturday, with Puccini's Turandot being staged tomorrow(Friday).

Scott aims to deliver

The Newhampton Arts Centre, Wolverhampton is offering a unique opportunity to see acclaimed singer-songwriter Scott Matthews play a warm-up gig in an intimate cabaret setting before his forthcoming UK tour. It will also be a chance to hear songs from his new album What the Night Delivers ahead of its release on.

Scott is at the centre Saturday June 11, from 7.30pm. Tickets are £12.50 and booking is essential, for details email office@newhamptonarts.co.uk or telephone 01902 572090.

Multi-instrumentalists Tim Judson and Julia Disney grace the Newhampton Folk Club on June 15 with support by Crag Band. Tickets are £8. Contact 01902 820958 or 340603.

SO YOU THINK YOU CAN DANCE: THE FINAL LIVE
BBC1, 7.15pm

So You Think You Can Dance has made for compelling viewing. Judge Arlene Phillips is certainly just as excitable here as she ever was on Strictly Come Dancing, and no doubt she'll be even more impassioned in this episode. Over the past eight weeks, the 20 finalists have been slowly whittled down to just four, and now they'll be going head to head to be named Britain's Favourite Dancer – and win £50,000 and the chance to appear on the American version of the show.

THE ROYAL
ITV1, 7pm

This week sees the arrival of timid new student nurse Faye Clarke (Lauren Drummond). It's her first time away from home, and she's thrown in at the deep end when a beautiful young model collapses and dies after consuming magic mushrooms. Faye may feel she's in over her head, but at least Matron (Wendy Craig) can see she has potential. Meanwhile, Lizzie (Michelle Hardwick) is charmed by motorcycle stunt rider Jimmy, (James Daffern), who injures his wrist in a bike fall. He thinks he has a hereditary medical condition – polycystic kidneys – so wants to live fast, die young. However, tests reveal an altogether different diagnosis.

British Grand Prix
Sunday, July 10 2011

FROM £179.95

The price includes:

- Return coach travel
- A one-day General Admission ticket
- Services of an Omega Holidays coach driver/tour representative

Few sporting occasions match the intensity, glamour and drama of the Forumula 1 Santander British Grand Prix and whether a wide-eyed first timer or seasoned veteran the experience is breathtaking.

Nothing beats the atmosphere at Silverstone when a British driver takes to the circuit. In 2011 both Lewis Hamilton and Jenson Button will be aiming to impress the loyal British fans at their home race and hoping to mount the steps of the Silverstone podium.

The British Grand Prix is the oldest race in the Formula 1 calendar, reaching its 61st anniversary in 2011. Originally a Second World War airfield, Silverstone has hosted the race regularly since 1950, and every year since 1987.

The circuit is famous for being one of the fastest and most challenging tracks, testing even the best driver's skills to the limit.

After victory in front of his home fans in 2008, Lewis Hamilton will be looking to emulate this success again, whilst Jenson Button would love to win at Silverstone and join the list of elite British drivers to win in front of a home crowd, including Jackie Stewart, James Hunt, Nigel Mansell, Damon Hill and David Coulthard.

Organised by Omega Holidays (ABTA V4782)

Please note: Omega Holidays cannot be held responsible for the non-appearance of any driver, and refunds will not be given in this event.

Pirates, open gardens, carp - it must be June

THIS week on the Breakfast Show we welcomed Dan Haycocks and Hemy Hemstock to the team.

Dan and Hemy will be alternating travel reporters – that way there's less chance of a Phil Ray-style nervous breakdown from working with me, I imagine. All week we've been introducing them to north Worcestershire, making them feel nice and comfortable. Don't worry, the pranks will start soon enough.

Canoes

With the Great British Summer (kind of) here again it's time to get out in the garden. There are six Open Gardens in Astley on Sunda,y June 19.

There's something for everyone including a magical grotto, huge tree house and fish ponds – one with huge koi carp – for the kids and lots of features and planting schemes to provide inspiration for mum and dad's own garden. You can stop en route for a pot of tea and a home baked cake or cream tea and there will be three plant stalls for purchasing Father's Day treats.

The gardens are open between 1pm and 6pm and visitors need to register at Astley & Dunley Village Hall to obtain a programme and map. Charges are £5 (free for children) and parking is available at the sites.

This sounds like it could be the most awesome day out of the year: Join a Party of Pirates on a mission to take canoes from Arley to Bewdley Rowing club on June 22. They are raising money for the Royal British Legion and Help For Heroes. The festivities begin at 5pm at the George Hotel in Bewdley.

Blackbeard's crew will then take you up to Arley to join forces with the crew from Sun Valley Canoes, paddling back to Bewdley for about 7:30. Anyone interested in taking part can call Hilary on 01299 404760.

Join myself, Dan, Hemy, Dani, Ruth and the Breakfast Show team every weekday from 6am for some great songs and banter.

If you need to contact 107.2 The Wyre or have a community announcement, email info@thewyre.com

WEATHER UPDATE

COOL, April-like conditions seem set to continue in the Wyre Forest area over this weekend with maximum temperatures never rising much beyond 14C (57F). Sunny spells are likely to be punctuated by occasional light rain, but winds are set to remain light. Garden plants may get a decent soaking on Saturday night. Summer warmth may return at the start of next week.

Carnival fun for visitors to town

Hundreds of visitors are expected to flock to Bewdley this Saturday for a carnival with music, dancing and guest performers.

Bewdley Carnival gets under way at 1pm with a procession through the town.

It will be led by a float carrying the four young princesses – Catherine Wakefield, Millie Halford, Libby Oliver and Lauren Taylor. It starts from Hales Park and continues into Cleobury Road before reaching the town centre.

The parade ends at the carnival ground outside the leisure centre in Stourport Road, where the entertainment will begin at 2pm.

Juggling

The main attraction by John Evans, who has appeared on Britain's Got Talent, balancing buckets on his head.

There will also be performances by the Severn Side School of Dance and magic and juggling act Wilmoris & Son.

Around 30 stalls have already been confirmed and organisers say there is still time for more to express an interest.

Bewdley Carnival Association's Sue Matthews said: "We are really hoping to build on the success of last year. We have tried to make the entertainment as varied as possible there will be plenty of stalls and games."

Most of the cash raised will go towards staging next year's event, but charities are welcome to bid for any left over.

EDUCATION FOCUS

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING BEGINS FOR ST. CATHERINE'S PRIMARY

All the children and staff at St Catherine's CE Primary, Marlpool Lane, Kidderminster were very excited as their long awaited, brand new school build has started! Diggers and construction personnel, in hard hats and high visibility jackets, moved on site early in May and the ground works are now well and truly on the way.

The children have been fascinated and thrilled by all the machinery being used and have even been treated to displays of spinning and turning by some of the largest machinery they have ever seen; we really are all very excited!
Mrs Sarah Power, head teacher, said "This is an amazing opportunity for our school and the whole community. Our new facilities are set to provide us with a 21st century learning environment."
This project is due for completion in May 2012, fingers crossed, with the school hoping to be well established in it's new home for September 2012.

has been established for 8 years now. Children between the ages of 4 - 18 years come every Saturday during term time to act, sing and dance. Through Stagecoach we notice students improve there confidence, articulation, creativity, poise and communication skills.

SUMMER WORKSHOPS
8th - 12th August
at Baxter College, Kidderminster

The workshops are open to non stagecoach students as well as our own students and are a great challenging but fulfilling week. We do singing, dancing and acting every day, everyone gets a speaking part and we perform to parents on the Friday.
4-6yrs come from 9.30-12.30 with their show at 12pm 6-18yrs come from 10-4pm with their show 'The Pirates of the Curry Bean' at 6pm.
New students are always welcome, there is no audition just lots of enthusiasm is needed.

EDUCATION FOCUS

"Raising the Achievement of All...."

Students attending Wyre Forest and Hagley secondary schools and Kidderminster College set new records last year through their fantastic commitment and the outstanding quality of local provision. We fully expect another ground breaking set of results this year making staying on with a ContinU Trust partner the first choice of parents. As a registered charity, the unique collaboration within ContinU secures growing additional opportunities.

This has led to year-on-year improvements in course pass rates, progression to the top Russell Group universities and high quality apprenticeship placements. Not surprisingly, post-16 applications continue to rise not only from local students but by our reputation across Worcestershire and Stourbridge.

Rob Chadwick, Director of ContinU says: "With outstanding schools and a nationally acclaimed FE College working in partnership why should a student travel out of area when the quality is right here on their doorstep?"

An example of this collaboration is the "Opening Doors" Enrichment Academy - an exclusive online HE service only available to ContinU Trust partner sixth formers. Increasingly, the very best universities want rounded young people with some experience of life alongside their excellent grades. The "Opening Doors" service offers them direct access to Higher Education master class preparation, internship opportunities, accredited voluntary work and conferences on careers in the leading professions. It has a pooled database of contacts and activities locally, nationally and internationally with funding opportunities to secure ContinU students a unique advantage. This offers a scale of support not available for example, to a standalong sixth form college working in isolation.

The ContinU Trust Board wishes to take this opportunity to wish all its students every success as they complete their studies for this year.

star extra TRAVEL

British Grand Prix

Sunday, July 10 2011

FROM £179.95

The price includes:

- Return coach travel
- A one-day General Admission ticket
- Services of an Omega Holidays coach driver/tour representative

Please note: Omega Holidays cannot be held responsible for the non-appearance of any driver, and refunds will not be given in this event.

Few sporting occasions match the intensity, glamour and drama of the Forumula 1 Santander Britiish Grand Prix and whether a wide-eyed first timer or seasoned veteran the experience is breathtaking.

Nothing beats the atmosphere at Silverstone when a British driver takes to the circuit. In 2011 both Lewis Hamilton and Jenson Button will be aiming to impress the loyal British fans at their home race and hoping to mount the steps of the Silverstone podium.

The British Grand Prix is the oldest race in the Formula 1 calendar, reaching its 61st anniversary in 2011. Originally a Second World War airfield, Silverstone has hosted the race regularly since 1950, and every year since 1987.

The circuit is famous for being one of the fastest and most challenging tracks, testing even the best driver's skills to the limit.

After victory in front of his home fans in 2008, Lewis Hamilton will be looking to emulate this success again, whilst Jenson Button would love to win at Silverstone and join the list of elite British drivers to win in front of a home crowd, including Jackie Stewart, James Hunt, Nigel Mansell, Damon Hill and David Coulthard.

Organised by Omega Holidays (ABTA V4782)

NOTICE TO READERS

Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

NOTICE TO READERS

Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

PAYROLL MANAGER

A Wolverhampton based client requires a reliable and experienced payroll administrator to assist with maintaining personnel records, completion of CIS returns, running payrolls and preparing month end reports for a group of companies. The successful candidate will have strong communication skills, a well organised approach to administration and good working knowledge of Excel and Payroll packages.

Previous experience in payroll and HR is essential.

Stourport crumble for 37 in hammering

WILDEN CRICKET LEAGUE

STOURPORT suffered humiliation as they were bowled out for just 37.

Mike Langford (6-14) and Todd Henderson (4-12) took all 10 wickets for Lye A as Stourport crumbled to a massive 141-run defeat.

Also in the Premier Division, Kidderminster Victoria remain rooted to the foot of the table after losing to Pedmore, who racked up 194-1 in a comprehensive 54-run victory.

In Division A, Cookley top the table after overcoming Bewdley Nomads by just six runs in a nail-biter. Andy Gorrell (53) and Paul Thomas (40) helped Cookley register 153-4.Despite good knocks from T Mills (42) and M Harris (38) Bewdley could only reach 147-7 in reply.

Stagborough were also involved in a tight run-chase, coming up eight runs short against West Hagley B.

The hosts registered 132-5 batting first and Stagborough replied well, needing just 18 from the last 16 balls, but Nick Greatbatch took three wickets in four balls and the run chase failed. Division B's individual performance of the weekend came from Bayton's Jord Shimwell, who scored 50 and took 6-17 in a 55-run victory over Three Crowns.

Arley beat Sportsman by eight runs in a low scoring match, despite being bowled out for 68, and Bewdley Arches overcame Areley Kings by five wickets.

CENTURY TWINS CAN'T FORCE WIN

KVCC 301-5 (55 OVERS), MOSELEY 180-9 (55 OVERS). KVCC WINNING•DRAW 18PTS, MOSELEY 6PTS

A SUPERB batting display by Matt Pardoe and Neil Pinner produced a second wicket stand of 232 runs in 45 overs,writes Brian Gittins.

But a stubborn rearguard defence by Moseley's number 11 prevented Kidderminster recording a second win of the season.

KVCC lost yet another toss, so had to bat first. The opening pair of Craig Wood and Pardoe were separated in the firth over when Wood was bowled by Freddie Eburah for 10.

County colleagues Neil Pinner and Matt Pardoe then started on building a wonderful innings. By the 20th over the pair had scored 66 runs and by the 40th had reached 175.

Having played so much cricket together over the years, these two 20 year olds appear to be telepathic. The running between the wickets was brilliant, with a fast outfield helping many balls to the boundary.

They kept neck and neck, and the only hold-up to their scoring rate came when spinner Usman Awan came on to bowl. His first two overs cost just one run, but Pardoe soon changed that. In the next over he hit two sixes and in the next over Awan was hit for three fours by Pinner.

The score stood at 249 in the 50th over when the partnership ended. Pinner, on 120, was caught by Tom Watts, bowled Abdul Hafeez. He had struck 11 fours and two sixes.

Pardoe departed in the next over. With 105 to his name, he was caught Addan Din, bowled Awan. He had hit eight fours and three sixes.

With the scoreboard reading 249-2 with only five overs remaining, some action was called for and it came from skipper Jonathan Wright, who took a look at Awan 's first ball and then hit the next two for six. He hit a third six off Tom Watts, who had his revenge when he had Wright leg before for 20.

Injured

Andy Kimberlin (7) was out to a super catch by keeper Jason Robinson off Watts and then we had two first team debutants.

Marc Edwards, an England hockey player. was joined by Zac Turley who later took over the wicket-keeping duties from the injured Jon Smith. Turley looked confident and hit two good fours in his 16, and Edwards scored 4.

The Moseley innings started disastrously, with the loss of three wickets for only 15 runs.

First Alex Stanley was lbw to Richard Kimberlin, and co-opener Huw Jones went to a brilliant gully catch by Marc Edwards off Gareth Williams.

Another good catch by Mark Mansell removed Usman Shabir, giving Kimberlin a second scalp.

Hafeez was lbw to Williams for 9 and the same bowler caught Din for 8. We then had a stand of 51 between Evans and Robinson. When Robinson had 18, he was lbw to Wright.

More wickets fell and all to Wright. A good catch by Mansell at slip had Awan out for a duck, Watts was bowled for 4 then Richard Gordon was trapped leg before for nought.

It looked as if KVCC had the game tied up, but number 11 Eburah had other ideas.

Evans was scoring well and Eburah played the anchor role brilliantly. The partnership added only 59 runs in the last 17 overs, but it saved the day for Moseley. Evans finished on 109, a superb knock under great pressure.

Wright took 4-28 for Kidderminster Victoria and Kimberlin 2-34.

Gareth Williams was also in good form with bowling figures of 3-30.

Centurions Pinner and Pardoe

Paul Hurrell, golden boot

Town teen top county footballer

KIDDERMINSTER schoolboy Paul Hurrell has been named Worcestershire's Football Player of the Season

The 17-year-old Holy Trinity International School pupil was chosen as Player of the Season by Worcestershire County Under18s.

Paul, who honed his skills with Kidderminster Harriers youth team, has now played seven matches for the U18s and has been awarded with a County tie and sweater.

Leadership

He now looks forward to another season captaining the U18 football team, still having a year to go with both the County and Harriers youth team.

Paul said: "I really enjoy playing for Kidderminster Harriers and Worcestershire County and I am so pleased to have been awarded Player of the Season. It is a great honour to both captain your county and receive such a prestigious award."

Paul has completed courses in Sports Leadership both with the Harriers and at Holy Trinity.

Marshall signs at Aggborough

KIDDERMINSTER Harriers have snapped up their latest summer signing in the form of former Tamworth skipper Tom Marshall.

The 23-year-old central defender ended last season as captain with the Blue Square Bet Premier side, playing more than 40 games and scoring on four occasions.

Marshall began his career at Hednesford Town as a youth team player, and his rapid progress through the ranks saw him make a first-team debut aged just 17 before he moved on to Eastwood Town.

Stars galore at weekend of class judo

WYRE Forest Glades Leisure Centre hosts a weekend of judo on June 18-19 with the Samurai Judo Club running a junior event on the Saturday and a senior high grades event on Sunday.

Amongst the lower grades expected to compete from the home club will be the latest trio of promising girls, Molly Thompson, Hetty Tinsdale and Becky Hobby, plus Aiden Preedy, who took gold in his debut competition in the boys.

Intermediate grades will include Darcie Hancocks and Bryony Griffiths, whilst the higher grades include Brendan Crummy and the Gulliver brothers, Arran and Rory, who could end up against each other, which should produce some fireworks.

International

Sunday morning sees the senior high grades, with categories for brown belts and then the various levels of black belts. Top Samurai names already lined up include Tom Walker, Matt Dutton and Nigel Tinsdale in the second level black belts section, but both Kate Walker and Sarah Biles will be away on international duty.

In the afternoon it will be the turn of the veterans, including Tinsdale again and hopefully Tony Leroux, one of the longest-serving Samurai players.

Spectators are welcome and entry is free to anybody who brings a Kidderminster Chronicle front page.

Frankie Marston and Brendan Crummy were the sole Samurai entrants in the 61 Open at High Wycombe and returned with a gold and silver respectively.

Whistle blowers wanted

Leisure Leagues staffer James Wilson, referee Sanjeev Laxman and Leisure Leagues executive director Stephanie Bullock

WILLING whistle blowers are wanted in the Wyre Foirest area as a community football league looks to recruit men – and women – in black.

Leisure Leagues, which is Europe's biggest and most successful providers of 5 and 6-a-side football, is running courses for budding referees.

The league donates all its profits to charity and has received praise from Gordon Brown, David Cameron, Prince Charles and Boris Johnson for its community efforts.

Referee induction evenings will take place at Stourport Sports Centre on Mondays over the next few weeks and anyone interested in free lessons can email info@leisureleagues.net, visit www.leisureleagues.net or call 0845 230 2340.

Batsmen flourish as records break

WORCESTERSHIRE COUNTY CRICKET LEAGUE

MORE high scores and record breakers were the order of the day, but in Division One there were no fewer than five draws as sides struggled to break deadlocks, writes Chris Marsh.

Steve Adshead's new division record score lasted for just one week, with Danny McDonnell of Pedmore setting a new milestone of 207 not out in a team total of 347-2 declared.

McDonnell notched 209 not out four years ago, a Division Three record, but his latest double hundred still wasn't enough for victory against Romsley, whose last wicket partnership of Conor Warby and Sean Lyness held out for 240-9 in a memorable draw.

Basement

At the top, Stourbridge remain in charge after a high-scoring draw with Astwood Bank, while Worcester Nomads claimed the division's only victory at home to Bromyard.

With a third of the season gone last year's Birmingham League relegated side, Pershore, have to settle for third place as they could not part the last Redditch pair after Liam Ridings scored 103.

In a mid-table battle royal, Worcester made 259 in 49 overs and Droitwich replied with 259-9 in exactly 51 overs, so honours were even.

In Division Two, Colwall return to joint top with a 24-point win against bottom team Kidderminster, as Monmouth got 20 points at Wormelow, thanks to 113 from Josh Grey, and Hagley beat Feckenham.

Dominies beat Malvern thanks to six wickets from Adam Crowle and 98 not out by Jon Hancock.

Coombs Wood accounted for Burghill and Belbroughton eased past Netherton with a ton from Will Pardoe.

Division Three leaders Rushwick lost part of their advantage as, despite 165 from Danny Sproul and 108 from Chris Pearman, they could not defeat Harborne.

This let Alvechurch, winners at Chaddesley, close in.

Stourport thrashed Himbleton to leapfrog Harborne and Chaddesley into third place.

Enville climb to sixth by demolishing Old Vigornians thanks to a seven wicket haul for James Willis.

In the basement games Birlingham sent Cookley to the foot of the table by inflicting an eight wicket defeat with 102 from James Styles, and Harvington clawed themselves off the bottom by beating Lye.

In Division Four, Tenbury moved further ahead, beating Barnards Green, whilst Stourbridge Social overtook Alveley with a winning draw.

Top ton by Siwicki is foundation for victory

STOURPORT 1st XI cruised to a 127-run victory against Himbleton with a magnificent 110 from Andrew Siwicki.

The batsman provided the backbone of Stourport's 328-8 and was given excellent support by Dan Platt (74), Craig Siwicki (24) and Chris Parry (24).

In reply, Himbleton never got to grips with the Stourport bowlers eventually falling to 201 all out with more than 12 overs remaining.

Highlight

Steve Yarsley (3 for 28) and Craig Siwicki (3 for 74) providing the bulk of wickets as Stourport climbed to third place in Division Three of the Worcestershire County Cricket League.

This Saturday, Stourport will look to build on the 24 point haul as they entertain Lye, with a 1.30pm start.

Stourport 2nd XI suffered a 120-run loss to Oldswinford.

Batting first, Oldswinford amassed 242 for 8 from their 50 overs despite 4 for 88 from Matt Delo.

In reply,Stourport could only manage 122 all out from 33 overs, with Phil Williams' 30 the highlight.

Stourport 3rd XI could not prise out the last West Malvern wicket as they gained a winning draw.

Fifties for Coombs and Jones

BEWDLEY 201-8 (8PTS) DREW WITH OLDSWINFORD 270-5 (15 PTS)

DESPITE a disappointing draw against Oldswinford, Bewdley were still able to take a number of positives.

Bewdley won an important toss but were not able to restrict the free-scoring Oldswinford batsmen.

Ewan Peer again made an early breakthrough, but the remaining batsmen all made substantial contributions.

Simon Mauger (2-52) was the pick of the Bewdley bowlers, and Rob Combes took a couple of wickets at the death. Jack Mills took two splendid catches.

Danger

Chasing 271, Bewdley were never in danger of being bowled out. Combes raced to yet another half-century, and Ben Jones Jnr looked good with a pugnacious 58.

Mauger returned to form with a calm innings of 39 not out.

Bewdley are now hovering perilously close to the relegation zone and although only one game has been lost.
